VOL. XI. THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS, WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1915. No. 7.

NOSES OUT VICTORY.

U. V. M. Leads Middlebury by Narrow Margin in Dual Meet. Three Records Broken.

In the final dual track meet of the season, before the New England Intercollegiate meet, Middlebury College was defeated by the University of Vermont on Centennial Field, Burlington, Saturday afternoon, by a margin or 12 points, the score standing 69 to 57 when the final count was taken. It was by far the hardest fought meet of the season, and so evenly were the teams matched, that not until the last two events had been run off, was it safe to predict the result.

The wearers of the Blue and White gave a splendid account of themselves, and lost only because Vermont had an equally well balanced team and had the good fortune of being favored with all of the "breaks". In fact, the element of luck figured very largely in a number of events, clearly influencing the final result.

Middlebury had the misfortune to be deprived of the services of Jones at the conclusion of the half mile, when after winning in a gruelling fashion, he was taken ill and compelled to retire from the meet. "Casey" was clearly not in his usual form as he entered the stretch, running in fourth place, but gathering every ounce of available strength, he opened up with a burst of speed that carried him home a winner. The effort, however, cost Middlebury a sure first place in the mile, and undoubtedly additional points in the two mile. Another bit of ill fortune befell Middlbury in the 220 yard hurdles when Dade, who had been leading throughout, and running a beautiful race, lost his stride in topping the final timber, and before he could recover was passed by Smith of Vermont.

The Green and Gold unearthed an exceptional athlete in the person of Smith, whose twenty point total was the stellar performance of the afternoon.

For the third consecutive meet, Lee was Middlebury's individual star, with a total of six second places in as many events. "Ridge" was in fine form and forced Smith to lower the Vermont record by 3-5 of a second in order to win the high hurdle event. He pushed Burrage to do 10 ft 3 in. in the pole vault, himself eclipsing the twenty-five year old Middlebury record for the event with a vault of 10 feet; he was beaten by less than a yard in both the hundred and furlong dashes; tied for the second in high jump and captured second in the broad jump—under the circumstances a remarkable performance.

Conditions were anything but ideal for record breaking performances, the track being slow, and the middle distance and long distance men in particular being handicapped by a strong wind that swept down the track.

The hundred was a nip and tuck affair, with Bolster of Vermont showing the way. Lee of Middlebury was a close

WINS BOTH GAMES ON TRIP

Middlebury Victorious Over Clarkson and St. Lawrence on Trip and Trims Clarkson a Second Time on Return Home.

On her second trip, Middlebury succeeded in bringing home two victories, one from Clarkson Institute of Technology and one from St. Lawrence.

McLaughlin held down the box for Middlebury in the Clarkson game, and kept the boys from Potsdam worrying the entire 9 innings, passing but two men. Bill received good support in the game and at no time was in great danger. Runs were bunched in the second inning when Butterfield smashed out what would have been a double on better grounds, bringing in Pollard and Dewhirst, and scoring himself a few minutes later on Sears' hit.

Clarkson's two runs were made in the first and third innings. Van Vorliss pitched well for Clarkson, allowing but three hits and passing three.

St. Lawrence went down to Middlebury in a game played on the St. Lawrence grounds on May 15. "Zeb" Aylward took charge of the box for Middlebury, while Clement did the honors for St. Lawrence. "Zeb" was never in much danger and consequently let the team play the game, which, by the way, came mighty near being a shut out as the Canton delegation secured their only run in the 9th inning. Hits were profuse on both sides, but St. Lawrence did not seem to be able to score on her chances. Sears played a snappy game at third for Middlebury, getting five put outs and two assists. Aylward played a nice fielding game, getting seven assists, while Dewhirst played a snappy game at short. Butterfield, who the day before had created a "young" sensation at Potsdam, went behind the bat for the last three innings, getting three put outs, two assists, and one hit out of two times at bat. Score 8-1.

Clarkson Tech. succumbed a second time to Middlebury, Monday of this week, in a return game at Porter Field. The day was cold and disagreeable, but the game was a more interesting one than the score would indicate. Crippen pitched a good game for Middlebury, walking but one and allowing few hits. Woodruff pitched well for Clarkson, walking three and allowing six hits. Middlebury got a lead of five runs in the second inning and from that point had the game cinched:

Visitors No Match for Middlebury Men in Slow Game on Porter Field.

St. Anslems proved to be an easy victim for the Middlebury boys when the teams met on Porter Athletic field Wednesday last in a one-sided contest. Middlebury used Crippen in the box the whole game, Crippen allowing 5 hits and passing none, while the visitors pitched Human and Alansing. The score was 8-2

Kaleidoscope.

When one is asked to write for the Campus a word of commendation upon any aspect of student activity, he is tempted at once to steal comfort for himself by a judicious raid upon his store of commendatory adjectives. It is easy to praise; but to over-praise is not judicious. Nevertheless the Kaleidoscope recently issued by the class of 1916 is deserving of praise. It is designed along the old and perhaps too familiar lines, but with important differences that reveal themselves upon closer inspection. Most obvious is the attractive page design. The cut of the old buildings gives every alumnus a memory of the days that have gone as he endeavors to accustom himself to the great diversity and interest of the days that are. The new Middlebury has sprung from the old as the flower from the bud. It was a happy thought to remind us of both on every page. As the Kaleidoscope is chiefly a record of student life and activities, it is pleasant to see how this book emphasizes the wholesome side of these things and lends itself adequately to the new interest in athletics that the last year or two has been developing. It was most fitting, also, to dedicate the book to Governor Mead, whose gift of a new chapel will be the center around which the new Middlebury will gather. One is tempted to over-praise the cuts. They are the most attractive feature of an attractive book. Nor can the absence of page after page of grinds be severely criticized. A little grinding goes a good ways, and the mills we turn are not those of the Gods. On the whole the book is the best Kaleidoscope Middlebury has seen for many years.

NOSES OUT VICTORY.

second, with Patterson of Vermont third.

Six Vermont runners lined up with Drew, Jones and Hollister of Middlebury for the half mile. The pack got away in a good start and ran well bunched for the first lap, with Drew setting the pace, followed by LeBaron of Vermont. On the final lap, LeBaron attempted to draw away, hitting up a hot pace, but turning into the stretch, was quickly overhauled by Jones and Hollister of Middlebury. Thirty yards from the tape "Casey" began his sprint and in a wonderful finish breasted the worsted as winner. LeBaron finished second, with Hollister at his shoulder.

The 120 yard hurdles was a very fast race, considering the track, with Smith of Vermont a winner in 10 2-5 seconds—a new university record. Lee took second place and Hackett of Vermont third.

The furlong dash was a repetition of the hundred, with Bolster and Lee racing the entire distance but a yard apart. The men finished in the aforesaid order, with Spencer of Vermont third.

In the mile run, only, was the division of points one-sided. Weakened by the absence of Jones, the Blue and White was able to get but one point, Harris taking third. Hayden made a runaway race of it with LeBaron a very poor second.

The quarter mile produced the most exciting finish of the afternoon. Drew, Ferguson and Hollister of Middlebury faced the starter, along with Bolster, Spencer, Patterson and Smith of Vermont. The bunch got away at a sizzling pace, running in the teeth of a strong wind that swept down the course. Coming around the last turn into the stretch, Hollister moved up fourth place and challenged Bolster of Vermont, closely followed by Patterson. The race developed into a hard finish that brought the crowd to its feet in an uproar. Hollister broke the tape first, with Bolster at his shoulder and Patterson third. All three runners had completely run themselves out, but quickly recovered.

The two mile was easy for Hayden, the Vermont captain, who was in the best condition of his career, and won with a hundred yards to spare in 10 min. 20 1-5 sec., a new Vermont record. Lamere of Middlebury ran a game race and took second place by an equally large margin over LeBaron of Vermont, who beat out Mitchell of Middlebury for third place on the last lap, Lamere breaking the Middlebury College record.

Dade led all the way in the furlong hurdle event, until the last hurdle, when he lost his stride, and was beaten out by Smith of Vermont in the final rush for the tape. Hubbard of Middlebury was a good third.

Middlebury shaded Vermont in the field events, as was anticipated, 29 points to 26, but the difference was insufficient to offset Vermont's lead in the track events.

Smith of Vermont captured the high jump with a leap of 5 ft. 4 in., with Lee and Captain Kron of Middlebury tied for second.

The pole vault went to Vermont when Burrage vaulted 10 ft. 3 in., Lee of Middlebury got second with a vault of 10 feet even, while Paulsen's mark 9 ft. 9 in., was good for third.

For the third time, in as many meets, Day won the shot put for Middlebury, this time with a put of 35 ft. 7½ in., while Grandy of Vermont took second with 35 ft. 5¾ in. Third place went to Ames of Vermont, when he pushed the sphere 34 ft. 10 in.

Middlebury took six points in the discus throw, when Brewster accomplished 99 ft. 3 1-10 in., and Day annexed third place. Burrage gathered second for Vermont. Brewster broke the Middlebury record which he holds, by a fraction of an inch.

Condit came across for Middlebury in the hammer throw, tossing the weight 115 ft. 10½ in. "Phil" fractured the old hammer throw record by about 3 feet, but fell short of his new mark established in the St. Lawrence meet the week previous by an equal amount. This was Condit's third consecutive win. Burrage of Vermont was good for second place with a throw of 112 ft., while the odd point went to Ayres of Middlebury with 108.2 ft.

The broad jump was the last event of the day, and went to Vermont with the leap of 20 ft. 4½ in. by Smith. Lee and Hollister of Middlebury took second and third respectively.

The senior class in a meeting held recently voted to purchase and plant ten maples along the walk leading to the chemistry building. Mr. Weeks had charge of the planting, which was done at once, and appropriate exercises will be held at commencement.

Senior Canes.

The senior canes have made their appearance on the campus. Unlike the canes of last year, which were of soft wood fitted for carving, the canes this year are of a hard wood, polished and with a crooked handle.

On Friday and Saturday of this week, representatives of the track team will participate in the New England Inter-Collegiate meet to be held at Boston.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

ESTABLISHED IN 1800

A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF THE CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

The College is now prepared to furnish to alumni and students a beautiful photogravure of the campus and buildings, from a drawing by Mr. J. M. Meeker. The size is 10x20 1-2. The paper is Dutch hand-made plate, of weight sufficient to be framed unmounted. All of the newer buildings of the college are shown, including the Mead Memorial Chapel. The picture is pronounced equal to any college bird's-eye view in impressiveness and beauty.

It is suggested that alumni may not only desire copies for themselves, but also for presentation to some high school.

ALBANY LAW SCHOOL

The course of study leading to the degree of L. L. B. extends over a period of three years. Students who have pursued one or two years in a law office may enter the second year class as a candidate for a diploma but not a degree.

The high standard of the school and the facilities which the city affords with its legislature, libraries and courts, offer unequalled opportunity for a thorough and practical training.
